Weekly & Quarterly Newsletter Advertising

Our weekly member newsletter The SNP provides three different ad positions within each newsletter for you to directly reach our opted-in members every week. We now also offer our targeted monthly newsletters The Messenger and The Nascent Transcript for additional advertising and visibility!

Discount pricing is available for multiple ad runs, contact us at exhibits@ashg.org to build a custom ad package!

Newsletter Schedules

The SNP member newsletter is distributed every Friday to all opted-in ASHG members, excluding ASHG office closures, major holidays, and the week of the ASHG Annual Meeting. The Messenger and The Nascent Transcript segmented member newsletters run on semi-regular quarterly schedules; reach out to exhibits@ashg.org for current scheduled release dates and availability.

Ad Positions and Rates

Each newsletter offers top, middle, and bottom ad positions. Only one approved advertisement per company may run per newsletter. Pricing below is per ad per newsletter, and advertisements for newsletters issued in the weeks leading up to the ASHG Annual Meeting are offered at peak advertising rates.

Position & Size	August 1 – September 15	September 16 – Annual Meeting (see current year's dates)	Standard Rate (all other times)
Top Position, 660w x 88h	$2,250	$3,000	$1,500
Middle Position, 660w x 175h	$1,500	$2,000	$1,000
Bottom Position, 660w x 175h	$750	$1,000	$500

Banner Artwork

All artwork and associated URLs must be submitted to exhibits@ashg.org and must be approved and tested prior to placement in ASHG newsletters.

- Artwork files must be in .jpg or .png format.
- Animated ads, .gif files, and text-only ads are not permitted.
- File size should be no larger than 75k.
- Ads with a white background must include a border or one will be added.
- If the artwork contains a logo, the logo should not exceed 1/3 of the total ad size.
- Associated URLs must be for the product, service, item, or event being advertised and must be submitted with the artwork

The American Journal of Human Genetics (AJHG)

The American Journal of Human Genetics (AJHG) is a premier scientific journal publishing many of the most important findings in human genetics. Topics range from Mendelian disorders and complex traits to epidemiological studies and population genetics, novel tools and technologies for genetic analysis, and advances in medical applications of genetics and genomics. The Journal also publishes commentaries and discussion pieces intended to generate conversation about issues important to the human genetics community.

Established in 1949, AJHG is the official journal of the American Society of Human Genetics (ASHG) and is a key part of its mission to advance discovery in human genetics. It is edited by a prominent member of the Society supported by an editorial board and staff appointed by the Editor. ASHG members receive a free subscription to AJHG and do not pay page charges or color figure charges publishing in the Journal as corresponding author.

Produced by Cell Press, AJHG is published online on a rolling basis, as well as monthly in print. Subscribers are granted immediate access to all materials, and six months after publication, AJHG content is available without a subscription to the general public.

Human Genetics and Genomics Advances (HGG Advances)

The American Society of Human Genetics (ASHG) announced in May 2020 the launch of Human Genetics and Genomics Advances, a new journal that provides a high-quality, scientific society-led, fully open access option for the human genetics and genomics research community. Membership in ASHG is not a prerequisite for publication in HGG Advances, but corresponding authors who are members at the time the manuscript is sent to press receive a 20% on article publication charges ($2,400 for members; $3,000 for nonmembers).

HGG Advances publishes across the complete spectrum of human genetics and genomics research. Its mission will be to build the human genetics and genomics knowledge base, and it will be a home for a wide range of research that meets ASHG's enduring standards for scientific rigor, validity, and reproducibility. The journal offers rapid review and considers direct submissions as well as offers prompt, easy cascade from AJHG for authors interested in that option. Policies, Guidelines, & Deadlines

Advertising Content Policies

Advertising, related URLs, and hosted content placed in all newsletters and web pages issued by the American Society of Human Genetics (ASHG) must be related to the field of human genetics and genomics and must be ethical, educational, and professional. All advertisements and content are subject to ASHG review and approval, and ASHG reserves the right to reject advertising copy and materials that do not align with these policies. Acceptance of any advertisement or hosted content does not indicate an endorsement by ASHG of the products or services promoted, the company, or the claims made.

Advertisements and content for journals or publications in competition with the ASHG journals American Journal of Human Genetics (AJHG) and Human Genetics and Genomics Advances (HGG Advances) are not permitted.

We strongly encourage our advertisers to create custom marketing links to accompany your advertising content to tie into your Google Analytics or other data collection tools, as ASHG cannot provide any metrics other than number of clicks received.

Content Submissions, Payments, and Deadlines

- All advertising content, including art files, hosted content, and associated URLs, must be submitted to exhibits@ashg.org no later than 5 business days (1 week) before the agreed run date/deadline.
 - Content not submitted in time without advance notice constitutes a nonrefundable cancellation/no-show.
 - For web advertisements and hosted content, no extensions or discounts will be offered for content received after deadline and posted late.
- Payment in full is required no later than 10 business days (2 weeks) before the agreed run date/deadline. One invoice will be generated, and advertising content will not run without payment being made in advance. Advertisers are responsible for paying any payment processing fees (e.g. wire transfer fees) in addition to their balance due to ASHG.
 - Cancellations: Cancellation requests must be submitted to exhibits@ashg.org no later than 10 business days (2 weeks) before the agreed run date/deadline and are subject to a 25% cancellation fee. Cancellations submitted within 10 business days of the agreed run date/deadline are nonrefundable.
 - For web advertisements and hosted content, we will prorate the schedule as applicable for cancellation requests received after the content is posted.
- Reschedules: Advertising content may be rescheduled one time at no charge up to 10 business days (2 weeks) before the agreed run date/deadline, subject to current availability for the previously booked item and position. If the content is rescheduled again, or rescheduled with 10 business days of the agreed run date/deadline, the ad may be rescheduled for a 10% rebooking fee (fee applies for each rescheduling).
 - Advertisements for The Messenger and The Nascent Transcript quarterly newsletters may only be rescheduled once, after which they will be considered a cancellation and subject to the 25% cancellation fee.

ABOUT ASHG

ASHG is the primary professional scientific membership organization for human genetics specialists worldwide. The Society's 8,000 members include researchers, clinicians, laboratory practice professionals, genetic counselors, nurses and others who have a special interest in the field of human genetics. Our members work in a wide range of settings, including universities, hospitals, biotech, and medical and research laboratories. The ASHG Annual Meeting is the largest human genetics meeting in the world with a community of more than 9,000 people and 250+ exhibiting companies annually.
